MUSCAT - Sharakah received a delegation from the Global Commercialization Center, which is an organisation that focuses on helping SMEs, Venture capitalists and emerging business to develop and grow through well-established commercialisation program.

Abdullah al Jufaili, Sharakah general manager, welcomed the delegate and started the meeting with an introduction about Sharakah and its services provided to support SMEs in the local community.

Professor MunKee Choi, executive advisor of KAIST GCC and former Minister of MSIP, said, "We are pleased to meet the senior management of Sharakah and we are impressed with the services provided to SMEs as both financial and cost-financial services play a vital role in building a solid base for the business to start operating."

Abdullah al Jufaili said, "It was a pleasure to meet the Korean delegation and to know more about the ecosystem of SMEs in South Korea."
